	Viviana Straps are the safest and most comfortable way for talent to wear Wireless Transmitters. They are made from an amazingly slim, breathable and soft fabric made in Milan, Italy. Handcrafted with extreme care using only modern materials & design techniques based on ideas of sound guys with years of experience hiding wireless on talent on location & stage. The universal built-in pocket stretches to securely accommodate virtually any modern pocket transmitter. Dual cable-keepers keep your lavalier's excess cable tidy on either side of the pocket. All Viviana Straps feature invisible overlap Velcro fasteners and include a Velcro strip for securing the transmitter in the pocket for complete assurance in the most demanding sports and "reality" situations. Available in BEIGE, BLACK or BROWN
